

大宿所詣

Join the “Oshukusho Mode” Procession !

Would you like to take part in one of Nara’s most traditional and historical events — the Oshukusho Mode procession?

Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2026

About the Oshukusho Mode Procession:

This procession takes place from JR Nara Station to Oshukusho (the “Great Lodging Place”), where the four sacred communities (Tatsui, Yashima, Go, and Nara) receive a ritual purification called Oyu-tate before serving at the On-Matsuri. Participants walk about 2 km through the shopping streets leading to Oshukusho.

Schedule

9:30 a.m. Meet at Nara Chubu Community Center (4th floor)

Around 9:40 a.m. Orientation session

After the explanation, participants will change into traditional white garments (hakucho) and have a light meal (two rice balls and tea will be provided).

12:00 p.m. sharp Gather at JR Nara Station East Exit Plaza

Group photo with all participants (approx. 100 people)

12:45 p.m. Procession departs (about 2 km, with a 10-minute rest stop on the way)

Around 2:20 p.m. Arrive at Oshukusho

Afterward, return to Nara Chubu Community Center, change clothes, and dismiss

What to Bring

Warm clothing (such as white thermal underwear or other layers for cold weather)

Deadline: Friday, November 27, 2026

Capacity: 10 participants (first come, first served)

Application Form:

Contact:

Nara Women’s University Center for Regional Collaboration

Attn: Ms. Morita

E-mail: morita_h@cc.nara-wu.ac.jp

